

PIXELPALS – BACKEND ARCHITECTURE (MVP)

Description: PixelPals uses frontend and backend structures, where frontend HTML pages send requests to backend PHP files using XAMPP. The backend takes in form submissions from e.g. login, register, basket, and uses a sample data PHP file to give product information for the products and basket pages. The diagram shows how the system components connect in the MVP.